Invitation to the international Beach-Handball Trophy presented by

Tulln / Austria
Friday, June 25th & Saturday, June 26th 2004

In June 2004 the traditional international Beach-Handball tournament will be conducted for the 8th time in Tulln. Tulln is a small city at the Danube and located about 35 km west of Vienna. The venue of the tournament is called "Aubad", which is a small lake near the Danube (pictures at www.beach-handball.at).

The event starts on Friday afternoon with a VIP-Evening to which all teams are welcome to participate in the matches between members of the EHF (European Handball Federation), the Austrian Handball Federation, the Beach-Handball-Club Tulln and the teams participating in the Beach-Handball Trophy next day. If we receive registrations of more than 30 teams we are forced to play some preliminary round matches on Friday Evening (matches of teams with a short journey to Tulln).

Registrations can only be accepted if the registration form was sent to us in time and if we received the payment fee.

How to get to Tulln

by car:

If you are travelling via Vienna take the motorway A22, exit “Tulln”. From Vienna it takes about 30 minutes to get to Tulln.

If you are coming from the west take the motorway A1, exit “St. Christophen” and just follow the signs to Tulln which will take you approximately 25 minutes.

Coming from the south you take the A2 via Vienna and then the A22 to Tulln as described above. You can find a route planner in English at ...

by train:

The easiest way to get to Tulln by train is travelling via Vienna. In Vienna you should get to the railway station “Spittelau” (can be reached by the underground lines U4 and U6). From there at least every 30 minutes a train leads to Tulln – time for the journey Vienna – Tulln between 25 and 50 minutes (depends on the number of stops).

More information you can find at <http://www.oebb.at/>

by plane:

The nearest airport is the Vienna International Airport. From there you can travel via Vienna by public transport or you can contact us and we will pick you up at the airport and take you to Tulln by car. <http://www.viennaairport.com/>

Accomodation

In Tulln you can book rooms in a 4*-hotel as well as a cheap youth hostel or a camping site. More information about the yout hostel (10 minutes per feet to “Aubad” and 5 minutes to the center) you can find at www.tiscover.at/jugendherberge-tulln and about the camping site (right opposite the „Aubad“, 15 minutes per feet to the center) at <http://www.tiscover.at/donaupark-camping.tulln>. „Aubad Tulln“

„Aubad Tulln“ is situated at the end of „Hafenstrasse“ near the river Danube and opposite the camping site. The area consists of a small lake, meadows, woods and a lot of sports facilities.

How to get to“ Aubad”:

Coming from the north or via Vienna (A22, S5) you'll cross the river Danube and right after the bridge you have to turn left. After 500 meters again turn left following the signs “Camping” or “Aubad”. At the roundabout take the first exit.

Coming from the west (A1, exit „St.Christophen“) follow all signs showing the way to Tulln and to the center of Tulln. You'll pass a couple of roundabouts – just take all exits like going straight ahead. After approximately 2kms driving through Tulln you'll reach a crossroads where you can turn only right or left. You have to turn left following the signs to “Wien via A22” or “Hollabrunn”. At the next traffic lights turn right to “Klosterneuburg”. After 500 meters turn left following the signs “Camping” or “Aubad”. At the roundabout take the first exit.
